

On at Smiths in July

THEATRE AT SMITHS

Wednesday 19th and Thursday 20th July 2017

“ The Longest Distance ”

Two short plays by local writers looking at lives, time and memory

‘ MAYBE TOMORROW ’ by Elaine McCann

Fay's in danger of meeting herself coming back, Flynn isn't sure how long he has left and Lewis prefers the past to the present. Will any of them manage to beat time ?

A short play about marathons, G.P.S. and Billy Fury

‘ WAITING FOR ELVIS ’ by Joan Breen

Maureen: " D'you remember Germany ? We did go didn't we ? It was so cool "

Vivienne, Maureen and Barbara laugh as they remember an adventure they shared in the sixties and look to the adventure still to come
